We're excited to announce that Leonis has joined the Nvidia VC Alliance, an initiative between Nvidia's startup accelerator and top-tier VC funds.

As a member of the alliance, Leonis Capital will gain access to Nvidia's extensive network, expertise, and resources. This will further enhance our ability to provide support to our founders.

Some of the concrete benefits for our portfolio companies are as follows:

1. Free Cloud Credits: Complementary cloud credits from Nvidia partners, including $100k in AWS credits.
2. Engineering Support: The opportunity to work one-on-one with Nvidia's solution engineering team.

3. Exclusive Discounts: Enjoy substantial discounts on Nvidia's hardware, software, and DGX Cloud products (30% off for DGX Cloud), as well as substantial discounts from Nvidia cloud partners.
4. Educational Opportunities: Access to Nvidia Deep Learning Institute courses and workshops.
5. Financing Options: Low-interest rate financing options for Nvidia's special equipment, easing the financial burden from acquiring cutting-edge hardware.

This partnership underscores our commitment to supporting our startups with the best resources and expertise. We look forward to a collaborative relationship with Nvidia and our fellow alliance members, nurturing the success of startups shaping the future of AI.
